

The Wine Shoppe Prince Edward County Wine tour

October 15th 2017

❖ Peterborough – Lacey Estates on Prince Edward County (approx. 111 km)

Depart Canadian Canoe Museum in Peterborough at 9am and begin journey to Prince Edward Wine Country. Arrive at Lacey Estates Winery shortly after 10:30am this morning. The Lacey family purchased the property in 1982 and dug into the Hillier clay-loam soils of their property on Closson Road in 2003 to plant what would become 10 acres. They made their first wines in 2007. The focus is on hand-crafted, small-production wines from their estates vines.

❖ Lacey Estates – Black Prince Winery (approx. 20.5 km)

After tour of Lacey Estates continue on to Black Prince Winery . Black Prince Winery has produced fine accessible wines for 15 years and are pleased to offer a very unique experience in The County. Enjoy a wine tasting a tour and demonstration of the barrel house and vinegar cellars. We enjoy lunch in the new pizza eatery venue before heading south to Half Moon Bay Winery.

❖ Black Prince winery – Half Moon Bay Winery (approx. 26.8 km)

The group continues to the furthest point we visit today, which is Half Moon Bay Winery for tour and tasting. Half Moon Bay Winery uses no synthetic pesticides or fertilizers, but relies on the arid climate of Prince Edward County and fractured limestone over Half Moon Bay to produce quality grapes.

❖ Half Moon Bay – Keint-He Winery (approx. 45 km)

Enjoy the rolling hill scenery through the heart of Prince Edward county as we travel north-west to the more central wine region. Keint-he produces domestic wines that exhibit European minerality and acidity. The vines are lovingly raised in the limestone rich soils of our three distinct and unique vineyards. Keint-he only focuses on those grape varietals that most effectively showcase the terroir of the region. The result is award winning, terroir-based wines.

❖ Keint-He Winery – Rosehall Run Vineyard (approx. 6 km)

Enjoy a private tutored tasting and chacuterie boards for nibbles upstairs in the tasting room overlooking the vineyard. Planting of this vineyard began in 2001 on the North Block with Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. There are 25 acres of estate vineyards planted which now include Pinot Gris, Sauvignon Blanc and other vinifera.

❖ Rosehall Run Vineyard – Karlo Estates (approx. 6.5 km)

Karlo Estates Winery is our last winery visit today in Prince Edward County. Come in and explore this 1805 post and beam timber frame barn and choose your favourite spot to enjoy your tasting, where County Chic pairs with high-end wines. After tour and tasting at Karlo Estates we continue on to The Waring House for our evening dinner at 5:30pm.

❖ Karlo Estates – The Waring House (approx. 18 km)

We end the day with dinner at The Waring House in the Amelia’s Garden Restaurant, quaint 19th century property. Dinner menu will be A fresh garden salad, breast of chicken, roasted potatoes, chardonnay cream sauce, medley of hot, seasonal vegetables and a chef’s choice for dessert, tea & coffee.
